Roster

Purpose of the duty roster is to make the optimal shifts allocation of the available skilled personnel. It is used to avoid scheduling more employees than needed on the same shift with the same duties, respecting the labor regulations. It is prepared weekly by the different supervisors, according to the different departments, and it's shared with the employees with a certain advance to allow them to organize their obligations outside of work.

Responsibilities

The responsibilities on the preparation and approval of the duty roster, for the different roles and departments are here defined:

Staff Category	Roster Preparation	Roster Approval
OCC staff	OCC Manager	Head of Operations
Train/Station Operators	Service Manager	Head of Operations
Infrastructure Maintenance staff	Infrastructure Maintenance Manager	Head of Maintenance
Vehicle maintenance staff	Vehicle Maintenance Manager	Head of Maintenance
Power and E&M maintenance staff	Power and E&M Maintenance Manager	Head of Maintenance

Guidelines

Following some general guidelines to be followed in the preparation of the duty roster:

- Plan the duty Roster weekly
- Plan the roster before adding individual names.
- Fill busy shifts with the most experienced and skilled staff.
- Handle availability and time-off requests.
- Make sure everyone receives the right number of days off, according to the labor regulations.
- Allow your staff to check their roster.
- Give your staff enough time to plan for obligations outside of work.
- Assign location to Station Operators, trying to implement a turnover between different locations.
- Consider the roles and the skills of each employee in assigning the shifts and the locations.
- Consider personnel preferences in assigning the night shifts, if it's possible.
- Implement a turnover on the night shifts, in order to never assign too many night shifts per week to the same employee, respecting labor regulations.

Shift Swapping

Employees needing to switch a shift between each other shall fill and sign the related form (HNL-09523.00.00-2-Shift swap form), that has to be approved and signed by the supervisor. In the case of approval, the responsible for roster preparation updates the duty roster according to the new shift allocation.

Note

Roster records shall be kept for a minimum of 3 years for audit purposes
